

Public Health Committee Testimony
HB 5499

Who's holding your ladder when it comes to your journey at Connecticut Hospice? We support families, friends and loved ones as they venture through the journey. A death journey involves more than the individual, but the whole family. It is a journey of trust between numerous individuals and it is vital that the journey be led in a loving and helpful manner.

Rev. Warren Godbolt